BRICK 1 · SORT BY PATTERN · APPROX. 4 MIN

Read each chunk quietly. If it fits subject + can + base verb → left column. If an -s, to, do, or -ing is attached → right column.

we can meet at ten

she cans book the room

they can print the contracts

we can to cancel the call

I can call the client

the scanner can reads PDFs

she can lead the workshop

they don't can deliver on time

he can fix the projector

we can finishing it today

CORRECT: CAN + BASE VERB

MISTAKE: -S, TO, DO, OR -ING

BRICK 2 · FILL IN CAN OR CAN'T · APPROX. 6 MIN

Fill in can, can't, or Can at the start of a question. The context tells you whether something is possible — the base verb always follows.

01 Priya knows the software inside out — she _____ show you the shortcuts.

02 The lift is broken, so we _____ use the meeting room on the top floor.

03 _____ you check these figures before the client call?

04 I _____ hear you very well — the microphone is off.

05 Our office is small, but it _____ host workshops for twelve people.

06 _____ I borrow your charger for an hour?

07 He _____ make it to the training — he is visiting a client that day.

08 You _____ park in the visitor spots behind the building.

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE MISTAKE · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each sentence hides exactly one mistake with can/can't. Underline it and write the whole sentence correctly.

01 Markus cans repair the printer before lunch.

02 He can to attend the training on Tuesday.

.....

03 We don't can start the project without approval.

.....

04 The new trainee can writes very clear emails.

.....

05 Do you can help me with the budget?

06 I can't to open this file.

BRICK 4 · WRITE YOUR OWN SENTENCES · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write one sentence for each prompt. Check: can/can't + base verb with no to — questions start with Can.

01 Your strength in the team: "I can ..." — a task you handle well at work.

02 A limit with an alternative: "I can't ..., but I can ..."

.....

03 A request to someone at work: "Can you ...?"

.....

04 A polite question for permission at the office: "Can I ...?"

.....

MINI-CHECK — CAN I DO THIS YET?

- ☐ I use can for ability, possibility, and informal permission.
- ☐ I keep the modal unchanged with every person: "he can", not "he cans".
- ☐ I put the base verb with no to after can and can't: "We can meet."
- ☐ I build requests and permission with Can + subject + base verb — with no do.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.
