Customer Service Phrases — help politely

You have built the service phrases — now strengthen polite requests, clear promises and friendly closes with new business situations.

English has no Sie-form: soften requests with could/would + you + verb and please .

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE MISTAKE · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each sentence contains exactly one mistake. Rewrite the whole sentence as a natural, polite service phrase.

01 Where can I become the return label?

02 You must email your VAT number today.

.....

03 Could you confirm the delivery date?

.....

04 I'll give back to you by 4 p.m.

.....

05 Would you mind wait by the meeting room?

.....

06 I'll pass this on at our warranty team.

.....

BRICK 4 · WRITE FOR CUSTOMER CONTACT · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write a short suitable response for each business situation. Use the service building blocks given.

01 A caller asks about a refund status. Greet them and offer help.

02 Ask a caller for their PO number. Use could, would or can, plus please.

.....

03 A replacement part is delayed. Apologise and promise an update at a specific time.

.....

04 Reply to a warranty claim by email. Open politely, hand it off and close formally.

.....

MINI-CHECK – CAN I DO THIS YET?

- ☐ I open customer contact with a greeting and an offer of help.
- ☐ I form polite requests with could, would or can + you + verb + please.
- ☐ I reassure with I'll and give a specific time or a handoff.
- ☐ I use light apologies and suitable closes for calls and emails.

Not sure about every point yet? Build the lesson again and say your answers aloud once.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.
