Follow-up Emails — follow up politely

You have built the lesson — now stack polite follow-ups brick by brick. Clear in purpose, friendly in tone.

Build your follow-up from three parts: soft opener + clear reference + one polite question

BRICK 1 · SORT BY TONE · APPROX. 4 MIN

● ○ ○

Read each phrase and focus on its tone. Put blunt or demanding wording on the left. Put wording softened with a question or softener on the right.

Send the report now

Just following up on...

Sign the contract today

I wanted to check in...

Pay us immediately

Just a gentle reminder...

Review the proposal now

Have you had a chance...?

TOO BLUNT / DEMANDING	POLITE FOLLOW-UP PHRASE

BRICK 2 · COMPLETE THE FOLLOW-UP PHRASE · APPROX. 6 MIN

● ● ○

Fill each gap with one word from the lesson. Notice whether you are building a soft opener, a polite question, or a firm but polite reminder.

- 01 I'm just _____ up on the market analysis I sent on Monday.
- 02 I _____ to check in on the draft contract from 3 June.
- 03 Just a gentle _____ about the venue deposit due tomorrow.
- 04 Have you had a _____ to review the supplier proposal?
- 05 Could you send me the _____ staffing plan before our call?
- 06 We do _____ your approval by Friday to launch on time.
- 07 I understand you're busy, but the payment is still _____ .
- 08 Could you confirm the training booking _____ Wednesday?

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE MISTAKE · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each sentence contains exactly one mistake in wording, tone, or follow-up structure. Underline it and rewrite the whole sentence politely and correctly.

01 I remind you about the missing sales report from Monday.

02 Could you send me the actual contract version before our call?

.....

03 Have you had a possibility to review the renewal proposal?

.....

04 Send me the signed supplier agreement by Thursday.

.....

05 I'm just following up with the draft partnership agreement from Tuesday.

.....

06 Could you review the project proposal and confirm the budget by Friday?

BRICK 4 · WRITE YOUR OWN FOLLOW-UPS · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write a short follow-up for each situation. Use a soft opener, a clear reference, and exactly one polite question; for later reminders, add a reason and a deadline.

01 A quarterly report has been missing since Monday. Write the first friendly follow-up with three bricks.

02 A training booking has not been confirmed. Write a gentle reminder with a reason and a deadline.

.....

03 A payment is overdue. Write a firm but polite follow-up: fact, deadline, question.

04 A client is reviewing your project proposal. Use "have you had a chance to" to ask politely for an update.

.....

MINI-CHECK – CAN I DO THIS YET?

- ☐ I start softly with "just" or "wanted to" instead of blame.
- ☐ I clearly name the report, contract, or date I am referring to.
- ☐ I phrase exactly one request as a polite question.
- ☐ I raise the tone one stage at a time: friendly, gentle reminder, firm with a deadline.

Not every box ticked? Rebuild your follow-up from the three bricks, then check the tone again.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.
