Emails: Making Requests — write politely and clearly

You know the three request formulas — now practise polite asks, clear deadlines, and the difference between by and until.

Single action with a deadline → by · continuing state → until

BRICK 1 · SORT BY BY OR UNTIL · APPROX. 4 MIN

● ○ ○

Put each sentence in the correct column. Single action with a deadline → by. Continuing state → until.

The schedule must be uploaded ___ 3 p.m.

The support desk stays staffed ___ 6 p.m.

The travel request must be approved ___ noon.

The temporary password stays active ___ midnight.

The samples must be returned ___ 12 September.

The showroom is closed ___ Monday.

Comments must be submitted ___ day's end.

The booking remains valid ___ 30 June.

The invoice must be sent ___ lunchtime.

The test account works ___ Friday evening.

BY = DEADLINE

UNTIL = DURATION

BRICK 2 · COMPLETE THE POLITE FORM · APPROX. 6 MIN

● ● ○

Add exactly one word to each gap. Check the three fixed request formulas, polite would like, and the deadline rule.

- 01 Could you _____ review the revised agenda?
- 02 Would it be possible _____ move our call to Wednesday?
- 03 I would appreciate it if you _____ approve the revised budget.
- 04 The signed minutes should arrive _____ 2 p.m.
- 05 Our reception desk will remain open _____ 7 p.m.
- 06 _____ you please add the order number to the invoice?
- 07 I _____ like a copy of the latest policy.
- 08 Would it _____ possible to reserve a larger room?

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE MISTAKE · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each sentence contains exactly one typical mistake. Underline it and rewrite the whole sentence as a suitable business request.

01 Could you please forward the revised rota until Tuesday morning?

02 I want a copy of the updated warranty terms.

.....

03 Would be it possible to move the site visit to Thursday?

.....

04 I would appreciate if you could check the supplier code.

.....

05 Could you please to confirm the room number?

.....

06 Share the revised forecast with our finance team.

.....

BRICK 4 · WRITE POLITE REQUESTS · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write one English sentence for each situation. Use the named request formula or set the deadline correctly with by.

01 Ask a colleague for the current attendee list using Could you please.

02 Ask a supplier for a replacement sample using Would it be possible to.

.....

03 Ask an important business contact to confirm the handover date using I would appreciate it if you could.

.....

04 Write a polite request for the signed travel form with Thursday as the latest deadline.

.....

MINI-CHECK – CAN I DO THIS YET?

- ☐ I can write an everyday business request with Could you please + verb.
- ☐ I can choose Would it be possible to for a favour and I would appreciate it if you could for a very formal request.
- ☐ I use I would like instead of the demanding I want.
- ☐ I use by for a deadline and until for a duration.

Not fully confident yet? Review the politeness ladder and the deadline rule, then try this sheet again tomorrow.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.
