Formal vs Informal Emails — strike the right tone

Practise making the greeting, word choice, and closing strike the same tone in business emails.

English has no Du/Sie — register lives entirely in word choice.

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE REGISTER MISTAKE · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each example contains a real error in its greeting, closing, or register. Rewrite the complete example so that it is suitable and correct.

01 Hello Mr Thomas, could you confirm the delivery date? (Surname: Vogel.)

02 Dear Ms, I am writing to enquire about your services. (Name unknown.)

03 Dear Mr Lang, I'm gonna send the report asap. Kind regards, Nora Bloch

04 Dear Ms Reyes, thank you for your time. Yours faithfully, Omar Saleh

05 Dear Sirs, please send the updated safety certificate.

06 Hi Priya, I am writing to enquire whether you require the report. Best, Leo

BRICK 4 · WRITE IN THE SUITABLE REGISTER · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write a short English email or suitable line for each business situation. Keep the greeting, word choice, and closing consistently at the same register level.

01 You are writing to the supplier Ms Novak for the first time. Formally ask about the delivery date and add a suitable closing.

02 Informally ask your colleague Leon for the same delivery-date information.

03 A formal email to an unknown contact began with "Dear Sir or Madam". Write a final thank-you sentence and the matching closing.

04 Informally decline a team call on Tuesday and suggest Wednesday as an alternative.

MINI-CHECK – CAN I DO THIS YET?

- ☐ I choose my register on a scale from formal through neutral to informal.
- ☐ I put Mr or Ms before the surname, never before the first name.
- ☐ I pair "Dear Sir or Madam" with "Yours faithfully" and a named greeting with "Yours sincerely".
- ☐ I keep the greeting, contractions, verbs, and closing consistently at the same register level.

Not sure about every point yet? Review the register scale and check each signal separately.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.

| 01 Dear Ms Hartmann
Formal first contact uses "Dear" with a title and surname. 02 Hi Leo
An informal message uses "Hi" with the first name. 03 postpone
Formal register uses "postpone" instead of "put off". 04 set up
Informal register uses "set up" instead of "arrange". | 05 respond
Formal register uses "respond" instead of "get back to". 06 look into
Informal register uses "look into" instead of "investigate". 07 Kind regards

|--|---|
| 01 Hello Mr Vogel, could you confirm the delivery date?
Mr and Ms attach to the surname, never to the first name. 02 Dear Sir or Madam, I am writing to enquire about your services.
Without a surname, use "Dear Sir or Madam", not "Dear Ms" alone. 03 Dear Mr Lang, I will send the report as soon as possible.
Kind regards, Nora Bloch
A formal greeting and closing must not mix with slang. | 04 Dear Ms Reyes, thank you for your time. Yours sincerely, Omar Saleh
"Yours faithfully" pairs only with "Dear Sir or Madam"; a named greeting takes "Yours sincerely". 05 Dear Sir or Madam, please send the updated safety certificate.
"Dear Sirs" is outdated and excludes women; use "Dear Sir or Madam" or a name. 06 Hi Priya, do you need the report? Best, Leo
Casual "Hi" clashes with the formal opener "I am writing to enquire". |

BRICK 4 · WRITE

Your answers may differ — just check that every signal matches the register you chose.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 01 "Dear Ms Novak, I am writing to enquire about the delivery date for our order. Kind regards, Mia Koch"
Formal first contact combines title and surname with a full form and formal closing. 02 "Hi Leon, do you know when our order will arrive? Best, Mia"
Informal register combines "Hi" and a first name with a direct question and "Best". | 03 "Thank you for your assistance. Yours faithfully, Mia Koch"
A message beginning "Dear Sir or Madam" closes with "Yours faithfully". 04 "Sorry, I can't make Tuesday's team call — can we do Wednesday instead? Best, Lina"
An informal decline uses a contraction, offers an alternative, and closes with "Best". |
