

C2 WORD ORDER ≈ 27 MIN

Information Structure – practice on paper

You know given-before-new order, end-focus, and end-weight; now control information flow, fronting, and passive order on paper.

Often move from given to new and light to heavy; fronting or passive order can deliberately change the starting point.

BRICK 1 · SORT INFORMATION FLOW AND REORDERING · APPROX. 4 MIN

Sort each sentence. The left column follows unmarked given-new or light-heavy flow; the right changes the starting point through fronting or passive order.

The vendor finally confirmed Tuesday's slot.

She sent the memo to every branch manager.

Our chair explained the delay after lunch.

Leo handed the summary to the new auditors.

The team announced a revised launch date.

That proposal, the committee rejected.

The final estimate was approved by Finance.

This option, we strongly recommend.

The venue was selected by the regional team.

Those concerns, I understand.

BRICK 2 · COMPLETE THE INFORMATION FLOW · APPROX. 6 MIN

Insert the information given in brackets in a natural form. Keep verb and object together and follow the requested starting point.

- 01 Pronoun link: The supplier was familiar. _____ then accepted our revised date. (use It)
- 02 Light before heavy: Nina sent _____ to every director in the northern offices. (use the minutes)
- 03 Past passive: Yesterday, the complaint _____ by the service director. (use review)
- 04 Fronted topic: That deadline, we _____. (use cannot change)
- 05 Keep object together: Our manager discussed _____ after the call. (use the forecast)
- 06 Heavy agent last: The policy _____ by a committee of regional experts. (use past passive of draft)
- 07 Fronted topic: This outcome, the partners _____. (use welcomed)
- 08 New item last: The buyer finally chose _____. (use the annual plan)

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE INFORMATION-FLOW ERROR · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each sentence contains exactly one word-order error in the target pattern. Rewrite the full sentence with clear information flow.

01 The assistant filed on Monday the signed agreement.

02 We discussed during lunch the new estimate.

.....

03 That concern, understand we completely.

.....

04 This choice, cannot we support.

.....

05 By the regional board was made the decision.

.....

06 Mara to every new team member sent the guide.

.....

BRICK 4 · WRITE WITH CLEAR INFORMATION FLOW · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write one English sentence for each prompt. Decide deliberately what is given, new, light, or heavy.

01 Given before new: begin with an already mentioned client and let a new decision land at the end.

02 End-weight: place a short object before a long recipient phrase.

.....

03 Fronting: place a given decision first and keep subject before verb afterwards.

.....

04 Passive: begin with a given result and place a long agent phrase at the end.

.....

MINI-CHECK – CAN I DO THIS YET?

- ☐ I often let new information land at the end.
- ☐ I tend to place long or complex phrases later.
- ☐ I keep subject before verb after a fronted topic.
- ☐ I use passive order deliberately for a suitable starting point.

Still unsure? Mark given, new, and heavy material in each sentence first, then try the sheet again.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.
