Passive Reporting Structures – practice on paper

You know the two formal reporting patterns; now reinforce focus, verb choice, and source distance with fresh reports.

Impersonal: it is reported that + clause; named topic: X is reported to + infinitive.

BRICK 1 · SORT BY REPORTING FRAME · APPROX. 4 MIN

Sort each sentence: it + that-clause on the left, named topic + reporting infinitive on the right.

It is reported that production resumes in May.

It is believed that demand is stable.

It is expected that regulators will reply soon.

It is said that ownership remains unchanged.

It is rumoured that two funds are interested.

Production is reported to resume in May.

Demand is believed to be stable.

Regulators are expected to respond next week.

Ownership is said to remain unchanged.

Two funds are rumoured to be interested.

IMPERSONAL: IT + THAT	TOPIC FIRST: X + TO

BRICK 2 · COMPLETE THE REPORTING VERB · APPROX. 6 MIN

Use the verb in brackets to form the correct formal reporting frame.

- 01 It is _____ that rail services will expand. (report)
- 02 The chair is _____ to announce the shortlist. (expect)
- 03 It is _____ that costs will fall next year. (believe)
- 04 The retailer is _____ to open three branches. (say)
- 05 It is _____ that several bidders remain. (rumour)
- 06 The revised policy is _____ to reduce delays. (believe)
- 07 It is _____ that talks will continue on Monday. (expect)
- 08 The operations lead is _____ to leave in September. (report)

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE MISTAKE · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each sentence contains one error in its reporting pattern. Rewrite the full sentence correctly.

01 According to press reports, the agency should open in April.

02 The firm is said that it wants a new investor.

.....

03 It reported that exports rose in June.

.....

04 The applicants are believed that they meet the criteria.

.....

05 The chair is expect to resign after the vote.

.....

06 It is rumour that another buyer has entered the talks.

.....

BRICK 4 · WRITE SHORT REPORTS · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write one English sentence for each prompt in a formal reporting register, naming the source when supplied.

01 Press report: state an expectation impersonally.

02 Minutes: place the responsible person at the start.

.....

03 Market update: mark a reported belief and name the source.

.....

04 Rumour: report cautiously with rumoured.

.....

MINI-CHECK – CAN I DO THIS YET?

- ☐ I follow it is reported with a complete that-clause.
- ☐ I use is reported to plus an infinitive after a named topic.
- ☐ I do not automatically translate German hearsay sollen as should.
- ☐ I choose these forms mainly in formal registers and name available sources.

Unsure? First decide whether the whole report or the named topic should lead the sentence.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.
