Will Future — practice on paper

You have built the lesson — now lock in the four jobs of will, brick by brick. New examples, same simple form.

One form, four jobs: will + base verb · decision · offer · promise · opinion

NAME _____ DATE _____

YOUR BUILD 1 · SORTING ○ 2 · FILL-IN ○ 3 · CORRECT ○ 4 · WRITE ○

BRICK 1 · SORT: DECIDED NOW OR PLANNED BEFORE · APPROX. 4 MIN ●○○

Read each sentence. Is the decision or promise made right now in the conversation → left column. Did the plan exist beforehand → right column. Watch for clues like "I promise," "I think," or "last week."

- It's cold in here – I'll close the window.
- We decided last week – we're going to hire two trainees.
- I promise I won't be late again.
- Her contract is signed – she's going to start in September.
- You look lost – I'll show you the way.
- They've saved up – they're going to buy a company car.
- I think the workshop will really help us.
- The trip is booked – I'm going to visit Berlin on Friday.
- I'll have the black coffee, please.
- He made a plan yesterday – he's going to ask for a raise.

WILL – DECIDED & PROMISED NOW	GOING TO – PLANNED BEFORE

BRICK 2 · FILL IN WILL OR WON'T · APPROX. 6 MIN ●●○

Fill each gap. Usually will/won't + the base form of the verb in brackets is missing — sometimes just a single word. Read the whole sentence: decision, promise, or opinion?

01 Don't worry about the invoice — I _____ it this afternoon. (pay)

02 I promise we _____ your data outside the team. (not share)

03 I think the meeting _____ on time for once. (start)

04 _____ you help me carry these boxes upstairs?

05 It's getting late — I _____ a taxi to the station. (take)

06 We _____ the deadline — you have my word. (not miss)

07 My assistant promised she _____ you back today. (call)

08 I'm sure the training _____ useful for the whole team. (be)

YOUR BUILD · 1 · SORTING · 2 · FILL-IN · 3 · CORRECT · 4 · WRITE

BRICK 3 · FIND AND CORRECT THE MISTAKE · APPROX. 7 MIN

Each sentence hides exactly one mistake with will. Underline it and write the whole sentence correctly.

01 He will sends the report tonight.

02 They willn't finish on time.

03 We will to order new laptops next week.

04 I will a glass of water, please.

05 The workshop will begin at nine sharp every Monday.

06 Does she will join the call today?

BRICK 4 · WRITE YOUR OWN SENTENCES · APPROX. 8 MIN

Write one sentence for each prompt. Watch will/won't + base verb — and what your sentence does: decide, promise, offer, or predict.

01 Your promise to your team: "I promise I will …" or "I promise I won't …"

02 Your instant decision in a meeting: "Nobody has time for this task — I'll …"

03 Your assessment: "I think our team will … next year."

04 Your offer to a colleague: "You look busy — I'll … for you."

MINI-CHECK – CAN I DO THIS YET?

- [ ] I form the will future with will + base verb — the same for every person.
- [ ] I make negatives with won't and questions by inversion: "Will you …?"
- [ ] I use will for instant decisions, offers, promises, and opinion predictions.
- [ ] I spot the German traps: "I will help" does not mean "ich will helfen," and fixed timetables take the present simple.

Not every box ticked? Build the lesson once more and try this sheet again tomorrow.

Answer key

Check only when you have finished. Every answer comes with the why — the rule matters more than the result.

BRICK 1 · SORTING

01 It's cold in here — I'll close the window.
The decision is made now — will + base verb.

02 We decided last week — we're going to hire two trainees.
"Decided last week" — the plan already existed.

03 I promise I won't be late again.
"I promise" plus a negative — won't.

04 Her contract is signed — she's going to start in September.
Everything is already arranged — a prior plan.

05 You look lost — I'll show you the way.
An offer to another person — will + base verb.

06 They've saved up — they're going to buy a company car.
The saved money shows a prior plan.

07 I think the workshop will really help us.
"I think" introduces an opinion prediction.

08 The trip is booked — I'm going to visit Berlin on Friday.
Booked means planned beforehand.

09 I'll have the black coffee, please.
Ordering is a decision made at the moment.

10 He made a plan yesterday — he's going to ask for a raise.
The plan has been fixed since yesterday.

BRICK 2 · FILL-IN

01 … I will pay it this afternoon.
A commitment to a later action — will + base verb.

02 … we won't share your data …
A negative promise — won't + base verb.

03 … the meeting will start on time …
"I think" = an opinion prediction with will.

04 Will you help me …?
In a question, will comes before the subject.

05 … I 'll take a taxi to the station.
An instant decision — usually 'll in speech.

06 We won't miss the deadline …
"You have my word" — a negative promise with won't.

07 My assistant promised she will call you back …
"She promised" makes it a promise — will + base verb.

08 … the training will be useful …
"I'm sure" = an assessment — will + the base verb "be".

BRICK 3 · CORRECT

01 He will send the report tonight.
Will takes the base verb — no -s.

02 They won't finish on time.
The contraction of will not is won't — "willn't" does not exist.

03 We will order new laptops next week.
Will takes the base verb without "to".

04 I want a glass of water, please.
English "will" does not mean "wollen" — use "want" for a wish.

05 The workshop begins at nine sharp every Monday.
Fixed schedules take the present simple.

06 Will she join the call today?
Questions use inversion — will before the subject, no "does".

BRICK 4 · WRITE

Your sentences may differ — just check that will/won't is followed by the base verb and that your contractions are right.

01 "I promise I won't schedule meetings after 5 p.m."
A negative promise: won't + base verb.

02 "Nobody has time for this task — I'll do it myself."
A decision made now — 'll + base verb.

03 "I think our team will grow next year."
"I think" = an opinion prediction with will.
